

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FROM FACTORYVILLE.

The Cobb-Colvin Wedding—Personal and Other Notes.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Jan. 24.—Myron Cobb and Annie Colvin, both of this place, were quietly married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Colvin. Miss Colvin was one of our best known young ladies and a teacher in the public schools in this town. The young bride is an exemplary young man and an employe of the United States Express company at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station in Scranton.

James B. Smith, owing to certain restrictions on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad to the residence of his employees, will in the spring move his family to Nicholson.

The alumni of Keystone academy will banquet in the Penn Avenue Baptist church at Nicholson on February 6. Anthony Colvin, will, in the near future, move into the Lester Castle house, now occupied by Fred Castille, who contemplates moving to Cheyenne, Wyo., where his father now resides.

George W. Stanton has rented the property of H. N. Copwell on Main street and will conduct the ice cream business the coming season. The building now occupied by Gregory, the music dealer, will be occupied by Mr. Copwell as a harness shop.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will give a social on Tuesday evening, February 6, at the home of Dr. E. T. Wheaton. All are invited.

Henry Jones, of Clinton township, is one of the jurors on the $25,000 damage suit of L. E. and Maud Gorton against the Lehigh Valley railroad. The jury was taken to the spot where the accident happened.

Republican primaries next Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock, at the town hall.

Paulownia Hebeck Lodge, No. 58, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a special meeting to transact important business next Tuesday evening, January 30. All members are requested to be present.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Tunkhannock, Jan. 24.—The case of Gorton against the railroad company is still on before the court here. The plaintiff's case was closed on Tuesday afternoon and immediately the defense made application for a non-suit, made on the contention that the plaintiff's evidence showed contributory negligence on the part of Mrs. Gorton. The motion was argued at length by the attorneys on both sides, the argument consuming the balance of the afternoon, and the motion being finally overruled by the court. Wednesday morning was occupied by the defense in calling the trainmen and some of the passengers to prove the time elapsed between the pulling out of the local train and the passing of the Black Diamond. The case will go to the jury after the charges of the day.

W. L. Matthews, a prominent business man of Scranton, and Mr. Tappan, of the Third National bank of Scranton, are here this week as witnesses in the case of McKinney, Evans & Co. against L. E. Stephens.

Michael Flynn, who was convicted last week in the court of quarter sessions of cutting timber on the land of another, was called before the court on Tuesday morning and sentence was suspended during his good behavior.

F. W. Wheaton, of Wilkes-Barre, will address the annual meeting of the Presbyterian church in this town on the "Department of Justice of the United States Government." This address is one of a series that the club has arranged for, taking in every department of the United States government.

O. E. Reynolds and H. E. Reynolds, of West Nicholson, were in town on Tuesday.

R. E. Prendergast, the Scranton stationer, is in Tunkhannock this week.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Susquehanna, Jan. 24.—The Erie shopmen will be paid on Friday for services in the month of December.

Mrs. Ann Williams, relict of Augustus Williams, died at her home on Jackson street last evening, after a protracted illness. She is survived by several adult children. The funeral will probably take place on Friday.

Frederick H. Belmont, who was recently arrested in Susquehanna, for impersonating a United States officer, in Windsor, Broome county, N. Y., and collecting alleged "fines" from merchants, has been sent to the Elmira reformatory for eighteen months. He claims Cleveland, Ohio, as his home and says he was intoxicated when he raided Windsor.

Mrs. Mary Edith Frey, the singing evangelist, of Paterson, N. J., will begin a series of evangelistic meetings in the Oakland Methodist church, about Feb. 5.

Rev. Moutonney, of Deposit, will deliver an address in the Avenue Methodist church, in Oakland, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 31. Subject, "Is Life Worth Living?"

At the second ward Republican caucus, held last evening, Job Malpas defeated George L. Tiffany for the nomination for justice of the peace. It was the chief bone of contention in the caucus.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine Smith will be held from the family residence on Jackson street at 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. Rev. David I. Sutherland, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

The next meeting of the Susquehanna County Teachers' association will be held in Great Bend on the third Saturday in September, next.

Venue editors have not yet commenced to call the recently chartered "County Press and Printing association" a "newspaper." The funeral of the late Miss Etta Sarah Simmons, of the Oakland side, will take place from the Presbyterian church in Susquehanna, at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon. Rev. H. Abbott (Episcopal), of Carbondale, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Charles Henry Newing, pastor of the Susquehanna Methodist church.

Last evening a lamp exploded in the West Main street residence of Mr.

Clough. The fire department was called out, but the flames were quenched with buckets of water. The loss is not large. Rev. David I. Sutherland, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is in Montrose today, on business.

Miss Anna Dougherty this evening entertained the "Such is Life" euchre club.

The Keystone trio, Miss Sadie Kaiser, soprano; Miss Albright, pianist, and Miss Parker, reader, appeared in the Epworth league course, in Hogan opera house this evening, before a large and delighted audience. The young ladies acquitted themselves very creditably, and were forced to respond to several hearty recalls. It was a most excellent entertainment.

Gulf Summit is working to secure a canning industry.

With Democrats of the borough and county held their caucuses today. On Thursday, being St. Paul's day, services will be held at 3.30 in Christ Episcopal church. There will be an address.

Miss Jessie Babcock is seriously ill at her home on Grand street.

Prof. Hazlett James Risk, late principal of the public schools, is preparing to remove from the place.

Messrs. James and John Smith, of Renova, are in town, called here by the death of their mother.

Business is brisk in all departments of the Erie locomotive shops in this place. Several residents of Susquehanna are in Montrose today, endeavoring to secure their naturalization papers.

The Susquehanna Maennerchor will hold a memorial party in its Oakland side music hall, Jan. 29.

The committee from the Halstead board of trade, having in charge the raising of the necessary funds to secure the American Chair company's factory, at Brandt, are meeting with encouraging success. About sixty men are at present employed in the factory. The removal of the industry would be a distinct loss to the little village of Brandt.

So far as can be learned, the "County Press and Printing association" has secured no additional Susquehanna county newspapers this week. The Susquehanna Journal gives notice that "it is not, and will not be in the combination."

THOMPSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Thompson, Jan. 24.—Miss Maud Tallman returned yesterday morning from Susquehanna, where she had been visiting friends for several days.

Rev. P. R. Mondale spent the Sabbath with his children here returning home yesterday. His wife will remain here for several days.

James Salmon, of Elmira, after a few days' visit with relatives here, returned to his home Monday.

Rev. P. R. Mondale was called to Kingsley last week to see his sister, who has been seriously sick. He returned Saturday as she is a trifle better.

Another wreck Sunday evening on the branch. A Delaware and Hudson coal train ran into an Erie train, demolishing the caboose and several cars and damaging its own engine to quite an extent. These wrecks are so frequent of late they cause little excitement.

G. D. Barnes had just put his steam apparatus in readiness to run his crisis when a thaw came which is ready now to do all the grinding that comes.

Thomas Leonard, wife and daughter, of Scranton, after a visit with his sister, Mrs. C. M. Lewis, returned to their home Sabbath afternoon.

C. F. Waterman is suffering from a hemorrhage of the lungs at this writing.

Jessie Williams and wife, of the township, left Tuesday for Boon, Ia., where they will spend some weeks visiting relatives.

Hon. George Moscrop, of Towanda, was doing business and calling on relatives at the accommodations in town Monday and Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Dwyer, of the Empire state, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church at Jackson, and will enter upon his work at once.

The wife of Emerson Tucker, of Jackson, is reported seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis left this morning for a few days' sojourn in Binghamton.

Dr. Merrill, of Halstead, was professionally engaged in Thompson Monday.

To the Public.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Brothers, wholesale and retail agents.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Forest City, Jan. 24.—The Republicans held their caucuses on Tuesday evening and placed the following persons in nomination: Burgess, for three years, Thomas W. Pentecost; Justice of the peace, for five years, Fred T. Gelder; overseer of the poor, for two years, George Brain; tax collector, for three years, William H. Bates; auditor, for three years, W. T. Gummaer. The foregoing officers are to be filled concurrently. The first ward nominations were: For school director, three years, William P. Jones; councilman, three years, Reuben W. Taylor; William J. Pentecost; Judge of election, William H. Jones; Inspector of election, William Forest. The nominations in the second ward were as follows: School director, three years, A. B. Wheeler; Judge of election, F. Warner Budd; Inspector of election, John Kritsko.

H. K. Vaughn, of Scranton, a former resident of Forest City, and at one time a teacher in the graded school, was a visitor among friends here Tuesday.

E. C. Boulter was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

John Meyers returned home from England Tuesday. Mr. Meyers has spent the past seven weeks in the old country.

The hat tail to attend the social to be held by the church choir at the Methodist parsonage Friday evening. An interesting programme of music, recitations, select reading, etc., is being prepared. Sandwiches, coffee, cake, ice cream and fruit will be served, and a good time is promised. Miss Lullie Anthony spent yesterday in Carbondale.

Postmaster T. C. Manser, who some time since had an operation performed on his arm, is again confined to the house.

The Democrats will hold their caucus Friday evening, as will also the Prohibitionists.

Henry Box and daughter, Alice, will visit Honesdale friends today.

PITTSBURGH.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Pittsburgh, Jan. 24.—An important business change took place today when the retail grocery business of B. J. Durkin, on South Main street, was purchased by Messrs. P. A. and C. C. Smith, of Camptown, Bradford county. Mr. Durkin has been in business in this city for the past thirty years, and has been one of the city's leading merchants. He retires from active business owing to ill health.

John H. Wolverson, aged 51 years, until recently a resident of this place, died yesterday in Galveston, Texas. He is survived by a wife and daughter, both still reside here. The remains will be brought here for burial.

Mrs. Martha Prosser, aged 73 years, a well known resident of Pittston for the past forty years, died at her home here this morning.

A fair is being held in Army hall every evening this week by Eagle Hose company, No. 1, and is attracting a large attendance each evening.

Pittston Young Men's Christian association first and second basketball club teams won two games from the Cayuga club teams at Wilkes-Barre last evening.

William C. Harding and Miss Margaret Pugh, both of West Pittston, were married in the parsonage of the Welsh Baptist church at Wilkes-Barre this morning.

Richard M. Whalen and Miss Clara A. Redding, both popular young people of Upper Pittston, were united in marriage in St. Mary's church this afternoon.

A frame house owned and occupied by Martin Loughney, on Carroll street, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The funeral services of the late Dr. Weston took place last evening at the family home in Wyoming. A large number were present from out of town. Dr. Serenson was in charge and he was assisted by Rev. Dr. Simpson, of Taylor. A quartette sang several appropriate selections. This morning the remains were taken on the 9.15 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for Brooklyn, Pa., for interment. The pallbearers were: Joseph Langford, W. G. Thomas, D. W. Evans, W. D. Owens, T. W. Lyte, of Pittston, and Griffith Davis, of Taylor.

At the ten-penny competitive meeting held in the Congregational church last evening, Richard Watkins, of Taylor, won the prize for the ten-penny solo. In the tenor and bass duet, the prize was divided between Alex. Williams and John Gravelle, both of West Pittston, and Richard Watkins, of Taylor. Professor D. E. Jones, of Taylor, performed the duties of conductor of music in a very competent and satisfactory manner.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The new couple will go to housekeeping at the home of the bride's mother on Luzerne avenue, West Pittston.

John Haines, of West Pittston, and Miss Annie Stuckey, of Searle street, this city, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Hartwood, by Rev. F. E. Ertvin. The bride was attended by Miss Eva Sutter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Albert Ertlich performed the duties of best man. After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

GAIN FLESH

An Absolute Necessity in Many Cases.

A DECREASE IN WEIGHT FREQUENTLY INDICATES A DECLINE.

Our Modern Rebuilder, Vinol, Will Help You Do It.

THE WAY IT ACTS ON A DEPLETED CONSTITUTION IS SIMPLY MARVELOUS.

Are you getting thin? If you are you had better watch yourself. Take Vinol. It will build you up quickly and surely.

A healthy man does not vary much from year to year in his weight. This is as it should be. Vinol enables the organs of the body to renew flesh, muscle tissue, bone structure, and attends to purifying the great vital current of the human system, the blood.

Vinol contains the active curative properties of Cod-Liver Oil in a highly concentrated state, and is the most wonderful tonic that we have ever had anything to do with.

Vinol acts upon the stomach in a beneficial way, enabling it to obtain for itself the necessary ingredients from the food that is taken into it to build up the healthy body and increase the weight.

Mr. H. M. Stufell, who is a well known passenger trainman on the Boston and Maine Railroad, suffered, as many railroad men do, with kidney and other troubles. He writes as follows:

"My kidneys troubled me a great deal, my bowels were very irregular, I had great distress in my stomach, suffered with bilious headaches, had no appetite, could not sleep nights, and was losing flesh rapidly. I began to take Vinol, I am now on my third bottle, and it is doing wonders for me. My kidneys are better, my bowels are again regular, my stomach no longer troubles me, and I am able to eat and sleep as before. I don't speak of it, I sleep like a top and have gained thirteen pounds. You can count on me always to recommend Vinol as the king of medicines."

With many such testimonials as the above coming before us, it is not strange that we endorse Vinol as strongly as we do. We unhesitatingly agree to return to any one who has taken Vinol and is not satisfied that it has accomplished all that we claim for it every cent that they have paid us for this remedy.

MATTHEWS BROS.,

Pharmacists.

part of the factory he has a new boiler. Mr. Freeman, of Sherman, is doing the work.

AVOCA.

Miss Edith Anderson, of Main street, is seriously ill.

Frank Milligan, of South Main street, is critically ill.

The Democratic primaries of the First ward will be held tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. Cornelius Osborn and Theophilus McNeil are candidates for councilmen, and John Reed, James Ward and A. J. O'Malley for school directors.

Miss Mary McCrindle is able to be about again, after several weeks' illness.

Mrs. Richard Kilmer died at the family residence in the North End on Monday evening, after a brief illness. Deceased was about 45 years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons and one daughter. The funeral will take place this afternoon. Interment will be in Langefield cemetery.

By a new arrangement a number of extra mails will be received at the postoffice. They will leave the postoffice at 8.30 a. m., 12.15, 4.30 and 10 a. m., 12.30, 1.57, 4.57 and 6.32 p. m.

John and Mrs. Fred Dimmock left on Tuesday for their home in Shelton, Conn., after several weeks' visit with relatives in town.

The Moose fall attracts a large crowd from this town every evening. The hose company attended in a body on Monday evening of this week.

St. Mary's choir attended the husband's supper in Upper Pittston Tuesday evening.

G. A. Dills left Tuesday for New York city to undergo treatment for chronic ear trouble.

Miss Isabella Connor, of the North End, has issued invitations to a gathering at her home on Friday evening.

Miss Martha Blair, of Daleville, is the guest of Miss Minnie Love.

Mrs. Charles Stegmaler, of Wilkes-Barre, spent Tuesday at the Druffner residence.

The Red Men's ball on Monday evening proved a grand success socially and financially. The elite orchestra, of Pittston, furnished the music. Their initial dance was quite successful.

Jacob Webster is doing jury duty this week.

TRIAL OF ASSUMPTIONISTS.

Sentenced to a Fine of Sixteen Francs Each.

Paris, Jan. 24.—The trial of the twelve assumptionist fathers before the correctional tribunal, resulted today in their sentence to a fine of sixteen francs each, and the court decreed the dissolution of the order.

The proceedings closed without incident. The imposition of merely nominal fines is explained by the fact that the main object of the prosecution was not the punishment of the fathers, but the dissolution of the order, which the government had long regarded as a reactionary political association and an important financial buttress of the Nationalist movement.

STARBUCCA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Starbucca, Jan. 24.—W. H. Wildenberger, of Forest City, visited friends in town Sunday.

Mr. Harry Mumford, who has been very ill, remains about the same.

Mrs. Huyek is again confined to the bed.

Charles Cook, while coasting at school, received a severe cut on the head. Dr. Yelding dressed the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rounds attended the meeting of the Susquehanna County Teachers' association at Lanesboro on Saturday.

Mrs. Sylvester Thomas is much improved in health.

Mr. A. C. Crossley is making quite extensive repairs and improvements in his factory. To run the new lathe which he has had rolled back he has placed a new engine, and in the main Sheet Music at 10c.—There still remains some splendid choosing from the Finn & Phillips stock. The most remarkable bargain of its kind ever offered: Tonight will probably close the lot.

Today, Thursday,

Gigantic Sale of Men's Winter Shoes

After a season of shoe selling that has been nothing if not phenomenal, we throw together today all the odds and ends of Men's Winter Footwear, and offer it at prices that are startlingly little, considering the qualities. The shoes you'll buy here today at very close to half price are made up in the best American factories, and positively have no superiors in point of quality of the leather, fine finish and careful attention to details. The particulars which follow are interesting, denoting a comparison of prices with regular shoe stores, the regular prices here, and the

Unusually Special Prices for Today

	Regular Price Here	Special Thursday Price.
Men's Patent Leather Lace Shoes.....	$5.00	$3.50
Men's Box Calf Leather-lined Shoes.....	3.50	2.89
Men's Vici Kid Leather-lined Shoes.....	3.50	2.89
Men's Box Calf Twill-lined Shoes.....	3.00	2.48
Men's Vici Congress Twill-lined Shoes.....	3.00	2.48
Men's Fine Calf Congress and Lace Shoes.....	3.00	2.48
Men's Fine Tan Shoes, with heavy soles.....	2.45	1.98
Men's Calf and Dongola Lace and Congress.....	1.98	1.69

There is not all sizes in any one style, though in most of them the sizes are complete. We leave it to prudent mankind to observe at a glance the big saving if they buy today. Only a one day chance, remember. Shoe Department, rear of store—near the elevators.

Jonas Long's Sons

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Jan. 24.—Prices on the New York Stock exchange seemed entirely unaffected by the movement of prices on the London exchange. The first sales of the international stocks showed sharp declines, but the rise achieved earlier on the London exchange. These opening gains conform very closely to the actual news of the day. It seemed impossible to achieve any movement of prices after the opening and the almost stagnant market departed along at about the opening level